

From: General Email
Sent: Friday, April 21, 2006 4:09 PM
To: Thulani Kunene
Cc: Keith Weeks
Subject: FW: Banking fee probe as per todays newspaper headlines

-----Original Message-----

From: Charles Harris [mailto:harrisgordon@hotmail.com]
Sent: 21 April 2006 02:50 PM
To: General Email
Cc: brunda@absamail.co.za; hfmin@telkomsa.net; jameskranig@bellsouth.net; jeff@ghphoto.co.za; derek@ghphoto.co.za; yvette@ghphoto.co.za; JohannC@hpcsa.co.za; taniacater@yahoo.com; blasl@global.co.za; petervdb@telkomsa.net; mici@mweb.co.za; denise@icsa.org.za; sean_mackenrot@telus.net; hurn@shaw.ca; lorendarobson@yahoo.ca; jansaad@eircom.net
Subject: Banking fee probe as per todays newspaper headlines

Attention
Head of registry
21 April, 2006

Re: Newspaper headlines " Your Bank is being probed"

Dear Sir

I have friends living in Canada and USA who say that most banks there do not charge any bankfees !!

While there seems to be is an issue at hand presently with SA of Banks apparently grossly overcharging their client's.

I would like to know if Bank's in SA would adopt the same policy as most of our overseas counterparts by not charging any banking fee,
WOULD THEY STILL BE SHOWING SUCH HUGE PROFITS each year as they presently do?? or would they go broke???

Your comments please

CG Harris(and many other interested friends)
harrisgordon@hotmail.com