Subject: no to high bank charges!

i'm a 23 year-old female who is disgusted by the way my money disappears to unexplainable bank charges. for crying out loud, i use the student account @ Standard bank but i get charged like i earn a million-dollar salary. i won't care if i was being charged reasonable amounts but it's plain out right ridiculous what Standard bank is doing. i started a new job a few day ago but i've decided that i'm migrating to another bank incase Standard bank swallows my whole salary, i won't give them the chance.

thanks for lodging this enquiry!!
