Dear Mr Weeks

Regarding the article in Sunday's Rapport dd May 7th 2006 about the outrageous charges banks charge, I would like to give you an example of a stop payment I made at Nedbank for a R150-00 debit order ifo Virgin Active for which I was charged R85-00 !!!!

I worked for Nedbank and know it is just the touch of a button on the computer to stop a debit order, so I agree that the banks overcharge us as customers and I am glad that you are exposing them.

Kind regards
