Dear Mr Weeks

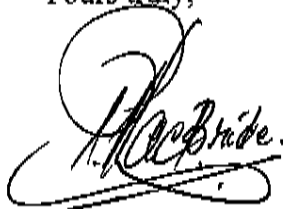

It is fantastic that somebody is taking up the issue of the exploitation of the poor by the rich. Not only by the banks, but Medical Aids, Businesses, Municipalities and not to mention the deplorable situation of the elderly as a result of every form of subsidization being removed, especially from the Old Age Homes. The elderly are completely destitute and at a complete loss as to know what to do and how to come out on their measly pension.

In the "good old days," there were so many privileges for the elderly, now there is nothing. More subsidies, advertisements, collections and concerts are held for the children of promiscuous parents with AIDS, street children and even for animals than is done for the elderly.

Anyway, the reason I am sending you this fax, is on account of the indiscriminate addition of Bank Costs. In my case ABSA Bank. Unfortunately I haven't been able to get rid of my overdraft facility due to unforeseen circumstances, but what has annoyed me since November 2004, an EXTRA R18,00 was added onto the cost of my overdraft facility over and above the interest. When I asked them what that was in aid of, they simply said: "for the privilege of the overdraft facility," and what can one do about it – nothing!!! That is about 18 months @ R18,00 = R324,00.

Their judgment day is coming, if not in this world then definitely in the next!!!

Yours truly,
