Commission publishes Guidelines for the determination of Administrative Penalties for prohibited practices, for public comment

Today, 10 December 2014, the Commission published the draft Guidelines for the determination of Administrative Penalties for prohibited practices, for public comment. The draft guidelines present the general methodology that the Commission will follow in determining administrative penalties for purposes of concluding consent orders and settlement agreements and recommending an administrative penalty in a complaint referral before the Tribunal.

The Guidelines come after engagements with several stakeholders, which stressed the need for the Commission to develop guidelines for determining administrative penalties.

Written comments on the guidelines can be e-mailed to: NellyS@compcom.co.za or TemoshoS@compcom.co.za. Alternatively, stakeholders can call 012 394 3231, for further enquires. The closing date for comments is Friday, 30 January 2015.
