

ANNEXURE A – PANEL MEMBERS BIOS

Chairperson: Halton Cheadle

Halton Cheadle is an attorney with 38 years' experience. His areas of expertise include labour law, constitutional law, administrative law, and municipal law, with further experience in the fields of commercial law and sports law.

He also has extensive experience in legislative drafting and has participated in the drafting of the Bill of Rights in the final Constitution, various labour statutes including the Labour Relations Act, 1995, the National Economic Development and Labour Council Act, 1994 and the Mine Health and Safety Act, 1996. In addition, he participated in the drafting of other laws such as the Special Pensions Bill, the Electoral Bill, and the Public Administration Management Bill, 2014. He has also drafted labour laws as part of labour law reform in Botswana, Lesotho, Mozambique, Namibia, Swaziland, Tanzania, Nigeria and Zimbabwe.

Halton has been involved as author and editor of various books and journal articles on labour and constitutional law. He has been an acting judge in the High Court and the Labour Court and has experience as an arbitrator.

Halton is the first South African to sit on the ILO Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (CEACR), International Labour Organisation, Geneva. He is also Professor Emeritus at the University of Cape Town.

Panel member: Lulama Mtanga

Lulama Mtanga is a Director at Lulama Mtanga Legal Consultancy and a former director at Bowman Gilfillan Inc. She specialises in competition law.

She holds BA (Social Sciences) degree from the University of Cape Town, LLB degree from the University of Natal (Durban) and a Postgraduate Diploma in European Union Competition Law from King's College, University of London.

Before joining Bowman Gilfillan, Lulama was employed by the Commission for about 3 years.

Some of the key matters Lulama worked on whilst at the Commission include: Commission/SAA, Commission/Patensie, Commission/Bernina Saskor and Commission/UDIPA. She was also part of the Commission team that prepared advisory opinions.

At Bowman Gilfillan, Lulama has advised clients on, and prepared, a number of mergers which include: Afrox Healthcare/Wilgeheuwel, Afrox/Twinco, Afrox/Electrogas, Armgold/Harmony, ARM/Avmin, Barloworld/Waterlines, Bridgepoint/GSL, General Electric/Edwards Systems Technology (Ziton), Greif SA/Rheem SA, Industrial Development Corporation (IDC)/Prilla & Dynasty, PIC(GEPF)/Tiber, Robert Bosch/SIG Pack, Sagem/Snecma, SA Chrome (Merafe)/Xstrata, South African Airways/EDS(Atraxis), UAP Agrochemicals & Crop Care/Plaaskem, AP Moller (Maersk/Safmarine)/P&O Nedlloyd, Advent International/Boart Longyear, Reatile/Mondi Imbani/Izingodo Timrite, Ericsson/Marconi and Baltrans/Clover Cargo Denel/Turbomeca, General Motors/Isuzu, Nkomati/LionOre, Pfizer Johnson & Johnson, adidas/Reebok, Barloworld/Robor, Xstrata/Arm (a coal merger).

Lulama has, inter alia, advised clients on the investigation by the Commission in the motor vehicle industry and currently the milk industry.

Panel member: Lumkile Mondl

Mr Lumkile Patriarch Mondl is a Senior Lecturer at the School of Economic and Business Sciences of the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, South Africa. Mr Mondl serves on the Boards of Aerosud, ArcelorMittal and Pallinghurst Resources Limited. He is the Chairman of Thelo Rolling Stock Leasing. Mr Mondl is also involved in the BRICS think tanks in institutional strengthening and coordination. He has presented and participated in various conferences world-wide, including the UN, World Bank, BNDES and OECD. Mr Mondl has travelled extensively throughout the world bringing innovation in his work for a better world for all

Mr Mondl was employed by the Industrial Development Corporation of South Africa as a Chief Economist and Divisional Executive for Professional Services for the past ten years until 30 June 2014. He served in President Zuma's State Owned Enterprises Presidential Review Committee. Previously Mr Mondl served as a member of President Mbeki's Economic Advisory Panel.

Mr Mondl holds an MA in Economics (Macroeconomics, international economics, public finance, and development economics), obtained from Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Illinois, United States of America, 1993.

He has also received further training as follows:

- Advanced Corporate Finance and Value Creation, University of Berkely Extension, 2000
- Transnet. Esselen Park, 1999. Management Advancement Programme (MAP).
- World Bank (EDI) & University of Maryland 1998, Washington DC. Currency and Financial Crisis: Early Warning Signals.
- WEFA, Pretoria, 1998. Forecasting Techniques.